

My Handprint Turkey Craft With Poem

As anyone can see,
I made it with my hand,
Which is a part of me.
It comes with lots of love,
Especially to say,
I hope you have a very,
Happy Thanksgiving Day!

My Handprint Turkey Craft & Poem

What do I Need?

- Construction paper
- Scissors
- Optional - felt
- Glue
- Googley eyes, pom poms or paper eyes

What do I Do?

- Use the picture as a guideline but be creative!
- Place child's hand on autumn colored construction paper & trace. Use many different colors for a colorful turkey.
- Cut hands out of paper and set aside. These will become your turkey's feathers.
- Cut out 2 brown circles, one larger for the body and one smaller for the head.

- Cut an orange triangle for nose a red wattle (See picture)
- Cut orange feet for your turkey
- Place your turkey on a piece of construction paper and glue all parts in the proper place.
- Two frame sizes are provided, based on the size of your turkey.
- If your child can write, have them write the lines to the poem inside the frame. If not, print the frame on this file and glue to many body of turkey. (See picture)
- To complete, have you child sign and date the back of the turkey! For protection, laminate!

This isn't just a turkey.
As anyone can see.
I made it with my hand,
Which is a part of me.
It comes with lots of love,
Especially to say,
I hope you have a very,
Happy Thanksgiving Day!
